

⌵ LIQUID

This symbol represents a perpetual state of flux between information and ideas. The output transforms into input that flows in self-sustaining circularities, thus, shaping a series of dynamic feedback loops to create new meaning.

Ⓜ OTHERNESS

Shaped as a small, autonomous community, with its specific identity. Small communities could be developed close to each other, but only on the same strip of land. If they're adjacent they build a network to share resource and culture.

Ⓞ PRACTICAL VISION

Practical Vision symbol sets a series of communication skills: when two Practical Visions watch themselves they create translations between different languages. A Practical Vision attempts to protect past and future cultures and works through organic and inorganic networks.

🌱 ECO-SWARAJ

Self-decision making in an eco community is what Eco Swaraj is about. This symbol could be seen as a flower, people holding hands, a thought before a decision is being made.

✳ HOPE

This symbol illustrates the destination of Hope, written by Gurur Ertem. The author considers it as a solution to overcome the darkness in our present and future life.

☁ UNDECIDABILITY

As undecidability embraces open imaginaries and multiplicities, the symbol was inspired by fog, the nature element.

🌋 RESURGENCE

This volcano depicts the legendary moment of long forgotten matter finally breaking through its suffocating covers, forcefully spilling out into the open with the heat of a thousand suns.

❓ !?

This is a description of !?: Et mi, voluptatum fugiam voluptat. Enet enturerum vendam, temolup taecatam cum iumentent, omnitibus et, conse pre doluptatem voloris doluptas audaepe rorepra dolorest optaeri veliquam ex etur.

🔗 ATATA

atata's symbol represents being in relation to others as an active act of reciprocity, it binds, connects and links beings.

📦 TENSE

Tense's symbol depicts the encapsulation of a content/subject inside a meta-description

WOR(L)DS FOR THE FUTURE

This is your blank map for re-imagine and re-draw the future. Use the provided system of symbols and elements from the different words' explorations to help you mapping new Wor(l)d.